YUGOSLAV NAVY HOLDS MANEUVERS;
ANTIAIRCRAFT DEFENSE ACTIVITIES CONTINUE

CELEBRATE NAVY DAY -- Ljubljana, Slovenski Porocevalec, 8 Sep 51

Naval maneuvers began this morning in honor of the tenth anniversary of the uprising of the people of Istria and the establishment of the Yugoslav Navy. The maneuvers were organized by the sector command of the Yugoslav Navy with the cooperation of the Association of Fighters [Veterans?], and the People's Youth.

Maneuvers began with the sailing of naval units around the Kvarner islands, and from there the sailors made an amphibious landing on Moscenicka Draga. From there they will march on Pula, through Plomin, Labin, and Vodnjan, arriving in Pula the evening of 9 September when the Yugoslav Navy Day celebration is to begin.

The celebration of both events is to begin in Rijeka on 8 September with combat exercises conducted by units of the Yugoslav Navy, which will involve the liberation of Rijeka in the same manner that it was accomplished in 1945.

The Yugoslav Merchant Marine is preparing similar exercises.

SELECT 2,100 ANTIAIRCRAFT DEFENSE LEADERS IN SARAJEVO -- Sarajevo, Oslobodjenje, 18 Sep 51

In 1951, Sarajevo began the intensive organization of antiaircraft home defense. Thus far 2,100 [block?] leaders have been chosen in this branch of the PAZ (Antiaircraft Defense); 50 percent of the leaders have completed courses in technical, medical, chemical, and fire-fighting aspects of home defense.

The PAZ has been satisfied, for the most part, with the help rendered by the people's organizations. The People's Front, the Association of Fighters [Veterans?], and the Red Cross have made possible the purchase of medical materials and have secured instructors. Those meriting particular thanks are the instructor and command personnel, doctors, engineers, technicians, students, Yugoslav Army officers, and others.
